Rethinking Sociological Critique in Contemporary Education

Reflexive Dialogue and Prospective Inquiry

Edited By Radhika Gorur, Paolo Landri, Romuald Normand

This book explores a new repertoire for critique in the sociology of contemporary education, focusing on emerging social theories that respond to contemporary challenges in education, education policy and governance. Highlighting alternative visions of these transformations in an era of globalization, fragmentation, and growing nationalism, this cutting-edge book will be of great interest to researchers, academics and postgraduate students in the fields of the sociology of education, the philosophy of education, social theory, political science and comparative policy and politics more broadly.
